1.
Pixxelpoint 2011 International New Media Art Festival will begin on 2nd December 2011 in Nova Gorica, Slovenia in Nova Gorica City Gallery (Mestna galerija Nova Gorica) and it will last for eight days, until 9th December 2011.

2.
Competitors can choose between categories:
- New media installation (new media work that is exhibited in spatial arrangements)
- Computer based art (new media work that doesn't require physical space, for example, programs, computer games, internet art, etc.)
- Digital print
- Video
- Other (work in traditional media - ie drawing, painting, sculpture, embroidery and so on - that may fit thematically or conceptually in the exhibition)

3.
Submissions must be sent free of charge to:
pixxelpoint2011@gmail.com

Deadline is 10th June 2011.

4.
There are no software and hardware limitations.

5.
Competitors agree that their work can be used for promotional purposes for the festival Pixxelpoint and catalogue for Pixxelpoint festival.

6.
Submitted works will be selected by the curator on the basis of artistic achievement. Authors whose works are admitted to the contest will be contacted by the curators.

7.
Author guarantees the authenticity of his/her work. In case that work is partially or completely not competitor's property, he/she assures that he has all the rights and permissions to use this work. With this statement the author frees the festival of any misunderstandings regarding copyrights.

8.
Pixxelpoint will not sell artworks or copyrights of the submitted works. The festival is meant only as exhibition and promotion for the artists.

9.
All submitted works must match the given theme 'Let's Get Ready...' as described on the website www.pixxelpoint.org.
